The paper must be based on Research, Scientific Content, Originality, and written with APA Style Guide guidelines***.
2. Applicants must complete an application for the Prize (available at www.jcahpo.org or by calling the JCAHPO Education and Research Foundation).
3. The typed, double-spaced scientific paper, signed application, and signed release form granting permission to use the winning scientific paper in various publications and venues must be received by the JCAHPO Education and Research Foundation postmarked on or before July 1, 2010. Winning papers are the property of the author, who will state in published material the wording, "Winner of the 2010 Harold A. Stein, MD, FACS(C) Prize for Best Scientific Paper, JCAHPO Education and Research Foundation." JCAHPO has the right to print all or part of the paper.
4. Only one (1) entry per candidate is permitted in any year. If the entry does not win, it may be resubmitted the following year if it has NOT been published.
5. Recipients may receive only one (1) Harold A. Stein, MD, Prize in a lifetime.
6. JCAHPO staff and members of the Selection Committee are ineligible to submit scientific papers. Previous recipients of Continuing Education Scholarships are not eligible to submit a scientific paper until two full years after receipt of the scholarship, i.e., 2009 recipients are again eligible in 2012.

B. SELECTION OF RECIPIENTS

1. Selection of recipients is accomplished by a Selection Committee comprised of Harold A. Stein, MD, Chair; Foundation Chair; a commissioner; and a JCAHPO-certified person selected by the Executive Director of the JCAHPO Education and Research Foundation.
2. Presentation will be selected based on research of topic, scientific content, and originality, with a maximum length of five (5) pages for the body of the paper. Cover page, references/bibliography, and diagrams are additional.
3. The applicant's age, sex, religion, or race shall not be considered.
4. All applicants will be informed of the status of their application and scientific paper by September 1.
5. By signing the application, the applicant gives the Selection Committee permission to investigate and verify all information provided and agrees to provide such information as the committee may request in order to properly evaluate the application for funding.

C. CONDITIONS APPLICABLE TO SCHOLARSHIPS

1. All applications must be signed and include all required information as requested on the application.
2. Prize will be awarded at the Harold A. Stein Lecture during JCAHPO's Annual Continuing Education Program. It is the responsibility of the winner to arrange for attendance at the program.
